Villa Binicaubell

Description

Perched atop the hills in the prestigious Son Vida neighborhood, this modern villa is just a 10-minute drive from the city center. Boasting 5 bedrooms, the villa offers breathtaking views of Palma and its bay. The architecture maximizes these views through expansive terraces and large glass windows. Additionally, nestled within a pine tree forest, this exquisite holiday villa features a separate cabin with a fantastic balcony, providing an unbeatable panoramic view for you and your family to enjoy.

Son Vida is renowned for its popularity on the island, attributed to its security, exclusivity, and proximity to four golf courses. Whether you're planning to explore the city of Mallorca or unwind in a tranquil setting, Son Vida presents an excellent choice for your travel itinerary. Alternatively, if you're inclined towards water activities or sailing, Palma is conveniently located near charming marinas such as Port Portals, Port Adriano, or Puerto de Andratx.
